The popularity of French automobiles may not be at the high point now that it was in the early stages of the last century, but even with the advances made by other nations, there are still several brands which owe either their existence or a significant element of their popularity to the nation. At the front, the two-tier light signature raises the look of Citroën C3 and reinforces the impression of bonnet height. The chevrons and their chromed double grille extend to the LED daytime-running lights with the circular design headlights below. The vehicle presented as an example only and may not match configured version.* The fuel consumption you achieve, and CO2 produced, in real world conditions will depend upon a number of factors including the accessories fitted (post registration), variations in weather, driving styles and vehicle load.
