This requires two larger pillows (one on each side), two smaller pillows, and then one rectangular or bolster pillow in the center. While five is the perfect number for most sofas, beds can have fewer. Four pillows...Mixing and Matching Cushions Like a Pro. There's nothing we love more than mixing textures to add depth and interest to a space. Bring balance to a room by contrasting rich, smooth velvets with a rougher and more rustic linen like our Kirkcaldy - here, the cushions are anchored together by the pompom trim and the pop...Mix n Match Colours. Add some depth to a neutral colored room by incorporating brightly colored scatter cushions. Play around with scatters in different tones – if you already have cushions on your sofa / beds (e.g. blue) compliment them with scatters in tones of pastel blues, royal blues or navy blues.
