I want to provide you with tips and tricks (and a little inspiration) on planning, creating and making your church events, programs and outreach something special. Question: "What does the Bible say about wearing hats in church?" Answer: In Western culture, it has always been considered rude or disrespectful for a man to wear a hat inside a building, including a church building. Even a generation ago, when men commonly wore hats, the headgear was removed indoors, or even outdoors in the presence of a woman.
