In the United States, a sheriff is an official in a county or independent city responsible for keeping the peace and enforcing the law. Unlike most officials in law enforcement in the United States, sheriffs are usually elected, although many states (such as California) have state laws requiring that a person possess certain law enforcement qualifications before being able to run for the office. Nikole Kristina Bakoles (220DFUT) Missing Since:March 2000 Missing From: Salt Lake City, Utah Found: October 8, 2000 in the South Shore of the Great Salt Lake, Utah.
