How To Whiten Your Teeth Fast And Easy No 2 methods of teeth are the exact same. So they say. There are plenty... Rinse with peroxide. Measure a few tablespoons of hydrogen peroxide into a cup, pour it into your mouth, and swish for one minute. Spit it out into the sink and rinse your mouth with clean water. As an alternative, dip a cotton ball in peroxide and rub it on your teeth, making sure they get completely coated. Another way to use hydrogen peroxide is by mixing it with baking soda to make a toothpaste. Combine 2 teaspoons of hydrogen peroxide with 1 teaspoon of baking soda and gently brush your teeth with the mixture. Limit the use of this homemade paste to a few times per week, as overuse can erode your tooth enamel.
