It gives insight from former college athletes of different sports to things that college coach's look for when recruiting kids. I like the fact how it was written so a small child could understand it; this book was not only helpful for parents, kids, and athletes but anyone can apply the knowledge to get to the next level in their life. This will be a great book to be placed in the school system. Awesome job on this book! To God be the Glory! Peace & Blessings! 5 Steps to Prepare for Your Future Career. If you're like many people, you might envision a steady stream of jobs in one industry, each one bringing you to the next level of success. Then, you hit retirement age and you most likely enjoy your golden years with your grandchildren. Here's the thing: that type of career, for the most part, doesn't exist anymore.
